

Budapest RYE Spring Seminar 2010

“Spice Up Your Leadership”

National Scholarship awarded to Lucy Reed and Donna Tavenor.

What was the AIM?

The aim of the study session was :

“For you to cover a range of qualities needed to make you a competent leader, and in the future, to put what you learnt, in to action within your youth group.”

What was expected and what were my expectations?

- You were to represent (be an ambassador) for NFYFC.
- It was up to you to book / pay for all travel. (Which is later reimbursed provided you attended a majority of the sessions.)
- To comply with the 'contract' you as a group choose to set (Ground Rules).
- My expectations were lots of interactive activity.

Ok...So what went on??!

We had group games to learn your fellow participants names, and then for some activities, you were split into smaller groups to do team building and get to know people from the other 19 countries a lot better beyond their name!

Presentations of your youth group.

Each country had to give a presentation in any way they wished...you had to use an A2 poster to present it with. Examples....!

With music.....

By Speech.....

Or giving out freebies!

I felt this improved your confidence speaking in public and communication skills.

Going post-it note crazy to get you thinking!

Our expectations, fear, thoughts etc were shown like this....

Interactive task to make the 'Ideal Leader'.

International Food Buffet Night.

A definite highlight for myself, each country brings along the countries finest delicacies and gives a brief talk.

England's Spread.

Setting Up.

With Hard Work comes....PLAY!

Zoltan who was taking part and lived in Budapest, kindly gave us a guided tour of Budapest for our free afternoon, in the evenings we had spare time too.

City Tour

Social Nights

Film Night

As a whole....

The week goes so fast and is ram packed full of things to do you never get bored, but you sign the Group Contract saying 'Go big in the night as long as you can go big in the day' !

Saying Goodbye...

As you are living, working and playing with such hospitable, happy people the whole week, you NEVER want to say Goodbye...to ease the blow we send fuzzy notes!

Each person has a letter and everyone sends each other post it notes of how they have enjoyed that persons company! Youre not allowed to open them until you take off on the plane!!! Great idea and everyone leaves happy!

“So good you don’t want to tell anyone else about it so you can go again”

BUT

I just have so now its your turn!
